

Name _____

Date _____

Pronoun Practice Worksheet

Practice 1: Use your knowledge of subjective and objective pronouns to circle the correct pronoun form.

1. (He / Him) went to the store to buy groceries.
2. I gave (she / her) the key, but (she / her) lost it.
3. Bobby and Susie had no idea what (they / them) were doing, so (I / me) helped them.
4. (Who / Whom) gave you permission to leave class early?
5. To (who/ whom) was the worksheet given?
6. (She / Her) and (he / him) decided to go home, so (I / me) went with (they / them).

Practice 2: Fill in the blank with an appropriate pronoun. Remember that pronouns must match their antecedents in number, case, and gender.

1. Billy was feeling ill, so _____ called in sick.
2. Pam has been expecting these papers. Will you deliver them to _____?
3. If the projector starts acting up, give _____ a good whack.
4. Bill and Ted did not understand history until _____ went back in time.
5. When teachers speak, they expect you to listen to _____.
6. If ____ make an error, please let me know.